Running Race.—A race which ex-cited the mirth of the spectators came off yesterday afternoon, at the Fsir the mile his horse was about played.
But after passing the score, a long way behind the black boy's horse, he ran to the upper turn, and his rider pulling him towards the outside too suddenly, showed that he still had some agility left, by jumping over the fence at the edge of the track.

derstand, the receipts of the four days are sufficent to meet all expenses and leave a margin over.

The agricultural implement department was tolerably well represented. We noticed some mowing machines, corn shellers, &c.

J. M. Wheat & Co. had specimens of common, stock and pressed, brick on exhibition. These gentlemen have acquired quite a local reputation in the manufacture of the latter. They compare very favorably with those made in the East. For our part, we think Wheat's pressed brick just as good as any article brought from Baltimore or elsewhere.

The printed programme for the day JUSTIFIABLE | BOLDNESS.—A young man asked a beautiful girl the other evening at the party, what she used upon her hair to make it so gloriously rich and lustrous. Her first impulse was to administer a severe rebuke to his boldness, but when she saw his rideulously frizzy locks, she pitled rather than condemned him, and so answered, "Bartlett's Vegetable Hair Restorative" is the only hair preparation I admit to my tollet. To it I owe my handsome hair.

The first race came off at 10½ A. M.: premium, $70; open to trotting horses that had never beaten 250 in public; mile heats, best 3 in 5, to harness.

For this race, A. Rosk entered Rust; A. J. Landaman, Pet; C. P. Ulp, Frank; C. Leonhurt, Mike Goodwin.

Rust was drawn after the third heat, and Mike Goodwin after the fourth, Pet trotted the fifth alone. The time made was 243; 243½; 239; 246½; 243½; 243½.

Pet trotted the fifth alone. The time made was 2:43; 2:434; 2:39; 2:463; 2:635.

Senhart, the driver of Mike Goodwin, entered protest against the decision of the majority of the judges giving the race to Pet, and, we understood, last evening, that the matter was under consideration by the judges.

The second race came came off at 2:30 p. m., and closed the performances. It was open to trotting horses, mares or geldings, in harness; mile heats, best three in five. Premium, $500.

The entries were as follows:
A. J. Landaman, b. m. Pet; Alex. King, Honest Davy; John W. Clark, "John W.;" John Watson, b. m. Mary Ann.

Tickets from the Post Office to any point on the Island, can be purchased at the company's office under the McLure Honse, at the rate of 16 for $1,00: tickets for Bridgeport, 10 for $1,00: Single fares are 7 cents to the Island; to Bridgeport, 12 cents.

At first sight these fares may seem rather high, but when it is taken into consideration that the Bridge Company charge the Hailway four cents for every passenger carried, it will be seen that the Kailway cannot operate at less prices than those charged. Whether the passenger pays his toll by the mouth or the year, it is all the same, the four cents have to be paid by the Railway Company. the four cents have to be paid by the Railway Company.

It really seems as though the Bridge Company has not acted in a very liberal spirit in this matter. But notwithstanding this, the Railway Company has concluded to run the cars to accommodate the people of the Island and Bridgeport at a profit considerably smaller than is made on the main stem.
